THE most difficult to please, but the most loyal of the milliners' patrons—when they are pleased—are the matrons whose choice of hats is swayed with the passing of youth.
The shop that would build a reputation for style on a firm foundation has only to succeed in outfitting its older clients in the right way—it is easy to suit and to please younger ones. The matron of today wants distinct and spirited millinery, rich and beautiful, to express the poise and assurance that years have given her.
The group of hats shown here—one of them posed on young faces—are four models that are suited to matrons, two of them new developments of regulation shapes; for there are some staple shapes in millinery, one of these appears at the lower right, with high crown, further heightened by its trimming and narrow brim rilling upward at the left side. The rope for high crowns and high (lower) a millinery fabrics proves a great advantage in millinery for matrons this season. At the right a similar shape, with slightly drooping brim of braid, has a "candy" cloth crown encircled by a handsome wreath of flowers and fruit. The braid hat with bell crown, shown at the lower left, is almost universally becoming. It has a sachet of ribbon and a wreath of flowers and fruit in lively colors; for the matron no longer buys somber and sedate headwear, at any rate not before she graduates into the class of the aged.

For the youngest members of the matron class, a spirited hat like that at the upper left of the group has several things to make it satisfactory.
The shape of silk, with soft crown mounted on a bandeau, the accuracy of a group of tufts, the fine handwork that appears in workroom-made flowers of silk finished with needlework, the adaptability of lines to the face—all are factors which women of ripe judgment appreciate.

HUMANE SUNDAY
SET FOR APRIL 1

By Associated Press.
ALBANY, N. Y., March 30.—Observance of "Humane Sunday" on April 1, bringing to a close a week devoted to kindness to animals, is sponsored by the American Humane association from its headquarters in this city.

No special observance has more fully claim upon the attention of Albany, irrespective of church affiliation, than that of Humane Sunday, the society says in its announcement.

"It has back of it no mercenary motives; it does not seek to finance any local or national institutions; no matter how commendable may be the purpose or valuable their work.
The friends of the child and the animal seek simply to have sermons preached on the occasion throughout American pulpits on the general subject of mercy and kindness. These are fundamental religious doctrines that need repeated emphasis."

For animal shows, public exhibits of bird houses made in bird house building contests, and planting of trees to commemorate the work of humanitarians are among the association's ideas for the week.

BAR STEAMER LINES AS
PASSENGER CARRIERS

By Associated Press.
HONOLULU, T. H., March 30.
Two steamship lines, the Toyo Kinoshita and the China Mail, now running through Honolulu to and from the far east, now are barred from carrying passengers between Hawaii and the mainland. The former's permit to carry such passengers, despite nationwide regulations on shipping, expired March 1, and the latter's permit just this week.
The chamber of commerce is preparing a memorial to Washington urging that the permits be restored owing to the congestion of traffic between the islands and the mainland of the United States.

Some men give according to their means, and then expect to be respected by the community.
